Numb. 13089. [301]

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 18, to Tuesday April 21, 1789.

Whitehall, April 20, 1789.

HIS Majesty is pleased to permit the Members of both Houses of Parliament to pass through the Gates of the Parks, at the Top of Constitution-Hill, and at the Horse-Guards, in their Way to the Two Houses, on Thursday next, till Eight o'Clock in the Morning.

SYDNEY.

Whitehall, April 21, 1789.

It is hereby desired that all Persons, who wish to manifest their Joy on the happy Event of His Majesty's compleat Recovery from His late Indisposition, by Illuminations, for which Purpose many Preparations appear to be making in the Cities of London and Westminster, would defer those Publick Marks of their Duty and Affection to the King till Friday the 24th Instant.

And it is also hereby earnestly recommended to the Magistrates in the Cities of London and Westminster, and likewise to those of every other Place where such Illuminations may be made, to give such Orders to the Peace Officers in their several Districts, as may effectually prevent any Insult or Injury being offered to the Persons or Property of those whose Houses shall happen not to be illuminated upon that Occasion.

SYDNEY.

[Price Seven-pence.]

Windsor, April 18.

This Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor and Sheriffs, attended by the Recorder and the City Remembrancer, waited upon His Majesty (being introduced by the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Deparment) with the following Address, which was read by the Recorder.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Livery of the City of London, in Common Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Livery of the City of London in Common Hall assembled, truly sensible of the Blessings this Country has experienced under Princes of the Brunswick Line, and especially under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government, could not behold the late Illness with which your Majesty was so long afflicted but with the deepest Concern and Regret.

Every Part of the British Empire is in Duty bound to offer Thanksgiving in the most solemn Manner to the all-wise Disposer of Events for so great a Blessing, as your Majesty's Recovery.

Called upon by the Respect we owe to the best of Sovereigns, we cannot refrain from approaching the Throne to congratulate your Majesty on this joyful Occasion.

Long may your Majesty be preserved to reign, in uninterrupted Health and Prosperity, over a free, happy and loyal People.

Signed by Order,

William Dix.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Accept with great Satisfaction your Congratulations on My Recovery from My late severe Indisposition.

The Proofs which you have given of affectionate Attachment to My Person, Family and Government are very pleasing to Me, and cannot fail to ensure an earnest Attention on My Part to your Interests and Happiness.

Windsor, April 18.

This Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor and Sheriffs, attended by the Recorder and the City Remembrancer, waited upon Her Majesty (being introduced by the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Houshold) with the following following Addreſs, which was read by the Recorder.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Livery of the City of London, in Common Hall aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Queen,

THE Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Livery of the City of London, in Common Hall aſſembled, ſenſible of the Bleſſings this Country has experienced under the mild and gracious Government of their much loved Sovereign, could not behold the late Illneſs with which His Majeſty was ſo long afflicted but with the utmoſt Concern and Regret.

We ſeverely felt the Diſtreſs it muſt have occaſioned to His tender affectionate Conſort and their amiable numerous Family.

Called upon by the Duty we owe our Sovereign, and the Affection we bear to His Family, we cannot refrain from approaching the Throne to congratulate your Majeſty and the Royal Family on ſo joyful an Occaſion as His Majeſty's Recovery.

We ſhall continue our Prayers to the Supreme Being, that His Majeſty may be long preſerved in the perfect Enjoyment of every public and domeſtic Felicity.

Signed by Order,

William Rix.

To which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer:

I Return you My warmeſt Thanks for your Expreſſions of Duty and Loyalty to the King, as well as for thoſe regarding Myſelf on the late melancholy Occaſion, and the Share I muſt now naturally bear in the general Joy on the manifeſt Interpoſition of Providence, by the happy Change in His Majeſty's Situation.

The following Addreſſes of the Deputies of the ſeveral Congregations of Proteſtant Diſſenters in and about London have been preſented to their Majeſties by Edward Jeffries, William Fuller, Benjamin Boddington, and James Bogle French, Eſqrs. being introduced to the Queen by the Earl of Aileſbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Deputies of the ſeveral Congregations of Proteſtant Diſſenters in and about London of the three Denominations.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Deputies from the ſeveral Congregations of Proteſtant Diſſenters in and about London, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence to offer our moſt ſincere and unfeigned Congratulations on the very happy and providential Recovery of your Majeſty's Health, thereby reſtoring your Majeſty to the Prayers of our moſt gracious and much honoured Queen, together with thoſe of an affectionate and grateful People, and to the full Exerciſe of thoſe Functions of Government which, under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Admi...ſtration, have preſerved to us ſo many Bleſſings.

In theſe heartfelt Expreſſions of our Joy we are confident that our Brethren in all Parts of the Kingdom do moſt ſincerely and cordially unite, and that the Body of Proteſtant Diſſenters will yield to none of their Fellow Subjects in Zeal and Affection for your Majeſty and our glorious Conſtitution, as their Loyalty and Attachment to your Majeſty's Auguſt Family and Government are founded in Principle, and, they truſt, have ever been manifeſted in their Conduct.

It ſhall continue to be our ſincere Prayer, that the Divine Mercy, thus diſplayed, may be continually exerted in preſerving your Majeſty in perfect Health, and in prolonging your Majeſty's Reign over a free, loyal and united People to the lateſt Period of human Wiſhes.

On Behalf, and at the unanimous Requeſt of the General Body of Deputies, aſſembled at Doctor Williams's Library, Redcroſs-ſtreet, the 16th of April, 1789.

Edward Jeffries, Chairman.
W. Fuller.
Benj. Boddington.
Ja. Bogle French.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt Gracious Anſwer:

YOUR dutiful and affectionate Congratulations on My Recovery from My late ſevere Indiſpoſition, and your Expreſſions of Attachment to My Family and Government are very agreeable to Me.

The Proteſtant Diſſenters will always experience My Favour and Protection.

They were all received very graciouſly, and had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE, the Deputies of the ſeveral Congregations of Proteſtant Diſſenters in and near the City of London, unite, with our Fellow-Subjects of every other Deſcription, in congratulating your Majeſty on the Recovery of our moſt gracious Sovereign from His late Indiſpoſition.

The many amiable Virtues by which your Majeſty has engaged the Hearts of the Britiſh Nation, and the Affections of our moſt gracious Sovereign, ſtrongly led us to ſympathize in the Diſtreſs of your Royal Mind, and now engage us to take an ardent Share in the Reſtoration of your Peace.

Permit us, Madam, to pray that your Majeſty may be long bleſſed with the Enjoyment of every Felicity, and that you may long continue a bright Example of thoſe conjugal and maternal Virtues which ſo eminently diſtinguiſh your Majeſty.

On Behalf, and at the unanimous Requeſt of the General Body of Deputies, aſſembled at Dr. Williams's Library, Red-Croſs-Street, April 16, 1789.

Edward Jeffries, Chairman.
W. Fuller.
Benj. Boddington.
Ja. Bogle French.

To which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer:

I Thank you for Sentiments ſo full of Duty to the King, and ſo expreſſive of your Attachment to every Branch of His Family.

They were all very graciouſly received, and had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

Whitehall, April 21.

The following Addreſs of the Britiſh Factory at Liſbon having been tranſmitted by the Honourable Robert Walpole, His Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary and Miniſter Plenipotentiary at that Court, to his Grace the Duke of Leeds, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has been by him preſented to the King: Which

Addreſs

Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Britiſh Factory at Liſbon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Britiſh Merchants reſiding in the City of Liſbon, humbly ſolicit your Majeſty's Permiſſion to approach your Royal Preſence with our ſincere and hearty Congratulations on your Majeſty's Recovery from your late Indiſpoſition.

Though placed in a Foreign Country, we can truly aſſure your Majeſty, that no Deſcription of your Majeſty's Subjects could be impreſſed with deeper Affliction at your Sickneſs, or more heartfelt Satisfaction at the Return of your Majeſty's Health.

We acknowledge with all poſſible Thankfulneſs the Goodneſs of Almighty God, in reſtoring your Majeſty to the Wiſhes of your faithful Subjects; and we moſt cordially join our fervent Prayers, that your Majeſty may long enjoy uninterrupted Health, and that your Majeſty's ſteady and unremitted Attention to the Welfare and Proſperity of your Dominions may be attended with conſtant Succeſs.

By Order of the Factory,

Liſbon, April 1, 1789. John Bell, Treaſurer.

The following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honnurable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Norwich, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Norwich.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AN Event, by which the Intereſts and Happineſs of every Part of your Dominions are ſo nearly affected as they are by the providential Reſtoration of your Majeſty to Health, and the effective Adminiſtration of Government, calls for the ſincere Congratulations of loyal and affectionate People.

Of all Deſcriptions of Men among us, there is none who can more become to expreſs their Joy on the Occaſion than the Eſtabliſhed Clergy.

Your Majeſty's earneſt and, we truſt, ſucceſsful Endeavours to preſerve Peace, not only to this Country, but throughout the World; your exemplary Regard to the great Duties of Religion, public and private; your unſhaken Attachment to the truly Chriſtian Principles of that Church which makes ſo eſſential and valuable a Part of the Conſtitution of this Country, at the ſame Time that they afford an unequivocal Proof of your own genuine Sentiments, contribute, we have no Doubt, in an eminent Degree to draw down the Favor and Furtherance of Heaven on the pious Labours of the Clergy to promote the Faith of the Goſpel and the Practice of every Chriſtian Virtue.

Under theſe Impreſſions, the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Norwich humbly preſume to unite their Aſſurances of unfeigned Joy to the general Voice of the Nation. To theſe we further add our devout Prayers to Almighty God, that our late diſmal Apprehenſions may lead us to know and value, as we ought, the ſingular Advantages now compleatly reſtored to us; and that in His gracious Mercy He will vouchſafe to beſtow on your Majeſty every Satisfaction that uninterrupted Health, domeſtic Comfort, a long and proſperous Reign, together with the merited and proved Affections of an happy and grateful People, can afford.

[Delivered by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Durham, penetrated with the deepeſt Senſe of the Goodneſs of the Almighty in the Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with our moſt ſincere and affectionate Congratulations on ſo happy an Event.

The many and great Bleſſings which this Country hath long enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild and prudent Government, and the unwearied and paternal Attention which you have ever graciouſly manifeſted for the Welfare and Happineſs of all your Subjects, cannot but excite in their Breaſts the moſt zealous and grateful Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, and teach them to regard your auſpicious Re-aſſumption of the Executive Government as the moſt intereſting Bleſſing to Individuals, as well as the moſt ſignal Mark of the Divine Protection and Favour to this happy Nation.

Permit us, Sire, to expreſs our particular Senſe of the Divine Goodneſs on this Occaſion in continuing to us your Royal Influence and Example, which have been ſo eminently exerted for the Countenance and Promotion of true Religion and Virtue. May your Majeſty long reap the bleſſed Fruits which you have ſo aſſiduouſly cultivated, and experience that the ſureſt Foundation of the Throne is laid in the affectionate Attachment of a religious and virtuous People; and may your Majeſty's Reign be as peaceful and happy to yourſelf, as it will be proſperous and glorious to your Subjects.

To promote theſe great Ends, and in the firm Perſuaſion that we cannot better expreſs our Gratitude to Almighty God for the Re-eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's Health, nor make a more acceptable Return to your Majeſty's paternal Care and Solicitude for the Welfare of your Kingdom, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we will, in our ſeveral Stations, diligently endeavour to impreſs upon the Minds of your Subjects a deep Senſe of the great Importance of Religion, Virtue and Civil Subordination both to public and private Happineſs.

[Delivered by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop and the Dean.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Wilts, beg Leave to expreſs the Sentiments of Joy and Gratitude with which our Hearts are impreſſed on the important and happy Event of the Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health.

We acknowledge, with the warmeſt Feelings of Thankfulneſs, the Goodneſs of Almighty God ſo peculiarly manifeſted towards your Majeſty and the Nation at large; and we humbly and anxiouſly hope, that the ſame good Providence which has graciouſly interpoſed on the preſent Occaſion, will continue to your Majeſty that Health which has been ſo happily reſtored, and long preſerve your Majeſty as an Example and a Bleſſing to your Subjects.

Signed in the Name of the Meeting,

Robert Aſhe, Sheriff.

[Delivered by Sir James Tilney Long. Bart. and Ambroſe Goddard, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for that County.]

The humble Addreſs of the Governor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the Company of Conſervators of the Great Level of the Fens, called the Bedford Level.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

ASSEMBLED under the Authority of Parliament for executing the important Truſts which have been committed to us for the Preſervation of an extenſive and valuable Tract of Country, we ſhould feel ourſelves deficient in Duty to your Majeſty if we did not profit from this Occaſion of offering to your Majeſty our moſt humble but ſincere Gratulations on your Majeſty's happy Recovery from a moſt alarming Illneſs. We acknowledge the Divine Wiſdom and Goodneſs, which, by this memorable Inſtance, has held out to Nations a well-grounded Hope, that the fervent Prayers of a loyal People will not be unavailing, and which has rendered even the late ſeveral Trial a Means of affording to your Majeſty the ſignal Satisfaction (which few Monarchs have attained) of learning, without poſſible Imputation of Flattery, that your Majeſty truly reigns in the Hearts of your Subjects.

We truſt it will not be deemed preſumptuous if we recognize an additional Source of Joy in the Comfort by this auſpicious Event reſtored to the Queen, whoſe deep Affliction and Diſtreſs has been Matter of public Solicitude, as alſo in the Happineſs derived to every Branch of the Royal Family.

May the Continuance of your Majeſty's Health be long and uninterrupted; and when, in the Courſe of Nature, it ſhall have pleaſed the Supreme Diſpoſer of all Events to gather your Majeſty to Himſelf, full of Years and full of Honors, may there not be wanting to the remoteſt Times a Deſcendant from your Illuſtrious Houſe to whom this Country may look up with united Confidence, as inheriting both the Crown and the Virtues of His Auguſt Progenitors.

The Common Seal of the Corporation was this Day hereto affixed by the Order of the Board, being their firſt General Meeting for the Year 1789.

Charles Nalſon Cole, Regiſter.

Ely, April 16, 1789.

[Delivered by Sir Charles Gould and William Fellowes, Eſq; Bailiffs of the Corporation of Bedford Level.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Borough of Derby, in the County of Derby.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Borough of Derby, in the County of Derby, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the moſt reſpectful Sentiments of Regard and Loyalty.

It is with the ſincereſt Pleaſure and Satisfaction that we are enabled to participate in the general Joy, and to congratulate your Majeſty on the happy Event of your Reſtoration to Health and to your People.

And it is our fervent Prayer that your Majeſty may long live to reign over your affectionate and loyal Subjects in the uninterrupted Enjoyment of every Bleſſing of Life.

Given under our Hands, the 28th Day of March, 1789.

[Delivered by the Right Honourable Lord George Cavendiſh, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Borough]

To His MAJESTY.

SIRE!

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town of Kidderminſter, impreſſed with fervent Gratitude to the Father of Mercies for His gracious Interpoſition in reſtoring your Majeſty to Health, humbly offer to your Majeſty our dutiful and affectionate Congratulations on this joyful Event, and our earneſt Wiſhes that your Majeſty may long continue to teach the Monarchs of the Earth the Glory of reigning in the Hearts of a free, an enlightened, an united, and a happy People.

[Delivered by the Reverend George Butt, one of His Majeſty's Chaplains in Ordinary, and Vicar of Kidderminſter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Bailiff, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Kidderminſter, in the County of Worceſter, in Common Hall aſſembled, beg Leave to offer our ſincere Congratulations upon your Majeſty's happy Recovery from the grievous Malady with which you have been lately afflicted.

Impreſſed with a grateful Senſe of the Divine Goodneſs in regarding the Supplications of a faithful and loyal People by reſtoring to Health the beſt of Kings, thereby rendering the greateſt Conſolation to His Royal Conſort and Family, with perfect Happineſs to His People, by enabling Him to reſume the full Exerciſe of His Royal Authority over theſe Kingdoms.

We think it our indiſpenſible Duty thus to acknowledge theſe Bleſſings, and to aſſure your Majeſty, that it is our earneſt Prayer that you may, with an uninterrupted Continuance of Health, enjoy a long and proſperous Reign over a free People, inviolably attached to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government.

Given under our Common Seal, the 4th Day of April, in the Year of our Lord, 1789.

James Pinches, Town Clerk.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Aberbrothock, in the County of Forfar, being actuated with a Senſe of the many Advantages we have, in common with our Fellow Subjects, enjoyed under the Government of the beſt of Sovereigns, do humbly beg Leave to approach your Sacred Perſon with the moſt profound Loyalty, to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Recovery; an Event juſtly conſidered a public Bleſſing.

Permit us, Sire, in the moſt reſpectful Manner to expreſs thoſe Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment which we entertain towards your Majeſty, as well as the ſincere Hope and ardent Deſire we feel, that your Majeſty may be long preſerved to reign over a loyal, a free and grateful People.

We beg Leave alſo to expreſs our warmeſt Wiſhes for the Proſperity of our Gracious Queen, the Prince of Wales, and the other Branches of your Majeſty's Royal Family.

Signed in Preſence, and by Appointment of the Council, at the Town-Hall of Aberbrothock, this 31ſt Day of March, 1789.

Charles Allan, Provoſt.

[Delivered by Archibald Douglas, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the County of Forfar.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Officers of the Marine Corps, Naval Hoſpital and other Principal Inhabitants of East Stonehouſe, Devon.

SIRE!

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Officers of the Marine Corps, Naval Hoſpital and other Principal Inhabitants of East Stonehouſe, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with Hearts full of Affection to your Majeſty, and the moſt unfeigned Joy and Congratulation on your happy Recovery from your late ſevere Illneſs.

Deeply impreſſed with Gratitude for the ſignal Interpoſition of Providence, ſo viſibly manifeſted in our Behalf, we ſhall not ceaſe to implore the Supreme Diſpoſer of Life and Health, for a long and uninterrupted Continuance of theſe Bleſſings to your Majeſty, and the conſequent Eſtabliſhment of thoſe which we have uniformly enjoyed under your Majeſty's benign and gracious Reign.

[Tranſmitted by Doctor Farr, Phyſitian to the Royal Hoſpital.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, Common Council and other Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Port of New Romney in the County of Kent, beg Leave, with Hearts overflowing with Love and Gratitude, humbly to teſtify our Joy upon the happy Event of your Majeſty's Recovery from your late ſevere Illneſs, which had filled our Minds with inexpreſſible Concern.

May the ſame Providence, which hath hitherto guided and protected your Sacred Perſon, continue its Bleſſings on your Health and Government; and it is our moſt fervent Wiſh that your Majeſty may long reign uninterrupted over a free and affectionate People.

Signed the 11th Day of April, 1789.

[Delivered by John Henniker, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Town.]

The following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Aileſbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, have been by him preſented to the Queen: Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Norwich, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Norwich.

Moſt Gracious Queen,

POSSESSED, as your Majeſty deſervedly is, of the Affections of the People of this Country, they cannot but feel a near Concern in whatever may materially affect your Comfort and Happineſs.

In the Event of His Majeſty's providential Recovery they have a common Intereſt, and they know it; they know that in that Event every Thing that is moſt dear and valuable to themſelves, as well as to your Royal Perſon and Family, is involved. On this Occaſion, therefore, we, the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Norwich, humbly preſume moſt ſincerely to congratulate with your Majeſty; and to offer up our devouteſt Prayers to the Diſpoſer of all Events, that it may pleaſe Him to continue to us thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings which He hath now renewed by the Reſtoration of Health to our beloved Sovereign, from whom that very Tenderneſs and Care, and Fatherly Affection, which your Majeſty, and thoſe neareſt His Perſon, daily witneſs and experience, is extended without Diminution to every Part of His People.

[Tranſmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop.]

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Durham, embrace with the moſt heartfelt Pleaſure this auſpicious Occaſion of congratulating your Majeſty on our beloved Sovereign's happy Reſtoration to Health, to your Majeſty, and to His faithful Subjects.

Endeared, as your Majeſty is, by your great and amiable Virtues, to the Affections of all your Subjects, we feel ourſelves deeply intereſted in every Occurrence which affects your Majeſty's Happineſs: But we want Words to expreſs our dutiful Participation and Sympathy in your late ſevere Afflictions; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that our late Anxiety and Sorrow can only be equalled by our preſent Joy and Exultation.

We cannot, as loyal Subjects, more effectually expreſs our affectionate Duty and Attachment to the beſt of Kings, than by ardently imploring the Great Diſpoſer of all Events, that He may preſerve your Majeſty to ſhare His Throne, and to alleviate the Cares of his Government; nor our Love for our Country, as good Citizens, who experience their Sovereign's Happineſs to be their own, than by devoutly praying that He may grant to your Majeſties a long and proſperous Reign over a free and united People; and that having bleſſed your Majeſties with all domeſtic and public Felicity in this World, He may call you late to the Poſſeſſion of an immortal Crown in the next.

[Tranſmitted by the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop and the Dean.]

To Her MAJESTY.

Madam,

WE, the Inhabitants of the Town of Kidderminſter, with Hearts full of Gratitude to the Father of Mercies for the unſpeakable Bleſſing diſpenſed to your Majeſty and to us, in the Reſtoration of our gracious and beloved Sovereign to Health, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our dutiful and affectionate Congratulations on this joyful Event, and to expreſs our ardent Hopes that your Majeſty, and your Royal Conſort, may long experienee a Continuance of that domeſtic Felicity, ſo rarely the Lot of Princes, at once the Reſult and Reward of your Virtues.

[Tranſmitted by the Revd. George Butt, one of His Majeſty's Chaplains in Ordinary, and Vicar of Kidderminſter.]

The following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, beg Leave to offer offer our warmeſt Congratulations to your Majeſty on the happy Re-eſtabliſhment of your Health and the conſequent Re-aſſumption of your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government.

This ſalutary Event, the Object of the earneſt Wiſhes and fervent Prayers of all your Majeſty's Subjects, muſt be peculiarly grateful to thoſe whoſe Province it is to train up Youth in the Knowledge of thoſe Sciences of which your Majeſty has ever been the Patron, and in the Practice of thoſe Moral and Religious Duties of which your Royal Example, during the whole Courſe of your Reign, has been the moſt illuſtrious Model.

May the Diſpenſer of all Good preſerve the Health of your Majeſty, and may your Majeſty long reign in the Hearts of a dutiful, affectionate and grateful People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Kilkenny, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere and joyful Congratulations on the happy Event of your Majeſty's Recovery from your late ſevere Illneſs, and upon your again being enabled to exerciſe perſonally your Royal Authorities.

Impreſſed with the ſtrongeſt Senſe of the numerous Bleſſings we, in common with the Reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects, have hitherto enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild and happy Government, but particularly thankful for the peculiar Benefits ſo graciouſly vouchſafed by your Majeſty to this Kingdom, we look up with Reverence to the Almighty, and with heartfelt Gratitude acknowledge the Interpoſition of His Divine Providence, in the Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health, ſo precious to your faithful Subjects, and ſo eſſential to their Happineſs.

And we ſhall not ceaſe to offer up our earneſt and fervent Prayers for the Continuance of your Majeſty's Health, and that your Majeſty may long reign the happy and glorious Monarch of a free, grateful and affectionate People.

Sam. Boyſe, Sheriff.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Borough of Newry.

DEEPLY impreſſed with the Goodneſs of God in reſtoring your Majeſty to perfect Health, and at the ſame Time truly ſenſible of the inеſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, we approach Heaven with the Voice of Thankſgiving, and your Majeſty with Congratulations flowing from Hearts that were lately overwhelmed with Anxiety.

May the Almighty preſerve your Majeſty's Health to the Fullneſs of Time, and continue the Bleſſings we now enjoy to our lateſt Poſterity.
